

DPHU PROFILE SUMMARY AND ACCREDITATION

1. DPHU experience and quality of services are built on networking and international collaboration, some international partners are Georgetown University (USA), Annamalai University (India), Mahatma Gandhi University (India), Burkinafaso Institute of Technology, IUBTG in Cameroon, CIESA Canada, University of Burundi, Byumba Polytechnic Institute (Rwanda) and KYAMBOGO University (Uganda), Kampala University(UGANDA). For different programmes that DPHU shares with the above universities, it is delivering the degrees from those accredited universities
2. DPHU is an Open and Distance Learning University first accredited and based in DRC from 2010 and it is ranged among Distance Education Association of South Africa (DEASA) member Institutions. See <http://www.deasa.org.za/> (Members Institutions)
3. DPHU has been also incorporated in Delaware State of USA as a Higher Learning Institution disseminating the courses by distance learning (teaching online Bachelor-Master-PhD) and has teaching centers in Burundi, Cameroon, Comorean Union Island and Burkinafaso
4. DPHU offers various online courses but also under distance programs students are coached and facilitated through its different centers as mentioned above (Burundi, DRC, Cameroon, Union Island and Burkinafaso) where they attend face to face sessions, sit for exams and present their thesis.
5. Exit awards of DPHU training and education programs are Diploma, Bachelors, PGD, Masters and PhD degrees.
6. DPHU has 65 Associate Lecturers, 26 Senior lecturers (PhD holders) and 4 Associate professors
7. DPHU has teaching facilities (class rooms, computer labs and libraries) enough to accommodate currently registered students and future applicants in accordance with DPHU projection growth.